

Directions to 855 Skokie Highway, Suite D, Lake Bluff, IL (847/615-1216)

From the north:

Take 41 (Skokie Highway) south to Route 176 (Rockland Road). The “off ramp” is called Shagbark Road on the map. At the light turn left and go over the bridge. You will come to another light called Washington Avenue, right after you go over the bridge. Make a left, follow the turn and you will see a stop sign at the entrance to 41. Do not get on 41, but turn right onto the frontage road which is just in front of the stop sign. Follow the frontage road past the post office annex, the motel and the trailer court. 855 Skokie Highway is the last building bordering the frontage road. Turn right into the north parking lot (which is at the very end of the frontage road), go to the very end of the parking lot (east), to Suite D.

From the south:

Take 41 (Skokie Highway) north to Route 176 (Rockland Road). Immediately after the exit you will see a frontage road to the left which runs in front of the post office annex. Take the frontage road (which only runs north from that point, parallel to Route 41) past the motel and trailer court. If you happen to miss the Route 176 exit, there are several small drives or exits which will still let you off of 41. 855 Skokie Highway is the last building bordering the frontage road. Turn right into the north parking lot (which is at the very end of the frontage road), go to the very end of the parking lot (east), to Suite D.

From Lake Forest:

Take Green Bay Road north out of Lake Forest until 176 (Rockland Road). Go left on 176 to the first stop light (Washington Avenue). Make a right, follow the turn and you will see a stop sign at the entrance to 41. Do not get on 41, but turn right onto the frontage road which is just in front of the stop sign. Follow the frontage road past the post office annex, the motel and the trailer court. 855 Skokie Highway is the last building bordering the frontage road. Turn right into the north parking lot (which is at the very end of the frontage road), go to the very end of the parking lot (east), to Suite D.

